The pain stethoscope:
A clinician’s guide to measuring pain
The pain stethoscope:
A clinician’s guide to measuring pain

Mark P Jensen
Professor and Vice Chair for Research
Department of Rehabilitation Medicine
University of Washington School of Medicine
Seattle, WA, USA
Contents

Author biography vii
Acknowledgment viii
Dedication viii

1 Introduction 1
Measuring pain in clinical practice 1
How to use this book 2

2 Measuring pain intensity 3
0–10 Numerical Rating Scale 4
4-Point Verbal Rating Scale 5
FACES Pain Scale – Revised 5

3 Measuring pain quality 9
Pain Quality Assessment Scale – Revised edition 9
Leeds Assessment of Neuropathic Symptoms and Signs 10

4 Measuring pain location 17
Pain drawing 17

5 Measuring pain behavior 19
PROMIS Pain Behavior Short Form 19

6 Measuring pain interference 23
Pain Interference Subscale of the Brief Pain Inventory 23

7 Measuring sleep quality 29
Medical Outcomes Study Sleep Problem Index 29

8 Measuring depression 33
Patient Health Questionnaire-2 33